

ELT: TEACHER DEVELOPMENT BIBLIOGRAPHY

PEDAGOGY, APPLIED LINGUISTICS,
MANAGEMENT AND TEACHERS' REFERENCE

INTRODUCTION

This teacher development bibliography is produced by the British Council to help English language teaching professionals select resources for the classroom, self-access centre, library or teachers' resource collection. This list focuses on resources to assist teachers in their professional development. It can be used by individual teachers, or by resource centre managers to start a new collection or to review and refresh an existing one. The bibliography has been divided into subject areas, for example, Dictionaries, Global issues and Language for teachers.

The British Council also produces another bibliography – ELT: General bibliography, English language learning resources for teachers – which focuses on teaching materials for classrooms use.

Please visit the Teaching English website at www.teachingenglish.org.uk for more ELT resources, advice and information.

Each item has bibliographic information to help you to select and order.
