

Task 2 – Possible answers

Bread: day, crops, mouth, hand, oat, break

Wine: trees, summer, fruit, night, mouth, roots, grapes, love, vine, sun, sap

Earth: green, trees, summer, rose, roots, quicksand, crops, fruit, mountain, worm, clay, sap, flower, rocks

Water: summer, force, spring, mouth, pool, fountain, sail, sun, stream, vein

Fire: day, summer, rose, blood, love, stars, sun, veins

Wind: green, trees, blowing, force, heaven, sail

Task 3 – Key

- Poem 1: bread, oat, wine, tree, fruit, day, night, crops, grapes, summer, blood, vine, wind, sun, break, blood, vein, root, sap.
- Poem 2: force, green, flower, roots, trees, rose, water, rocks, blood, streams, mouth, veins, mountain, spring, hand, pool, quicksand, blowing, wind, sail, clay, fountain, love, heaven, stars, worm

Task 5 – Possible answers

The collations and examples below come from the Oxford Collocations Dictionary<sup>1</sup>.

	Collocations	Sentences
Bread	Fresh, hard, stale, crusty, sliced, home-baked, brown, wholemeal/ chunk, loaf, crumb, crust, slice/ make, bake, cut, slice, toast/bread and butter, bread and cheese, bread and jam, bread and wine.	This bread is going stale. She tore off a large chunk of bread. A cup of coffee and a plate of bread and butter please.
Wine	Red, white, fizzy, dry, sweet, light, full-bodied, fruity, mature, young, fine, vintage, table, house, dessert, mulled/ drop, bottle, glass of/ drink, have, taste, sip, produce, mature, order, serve, breath/ wine cellar, wine bar, wine grape, wine taster, wine merchant, wine, region/ sold by the glass.	The younger wines will be mature after three years. Would you like a drop of wine? He went to Chile to taste wines. The winery has been producing wines for 125 years.
Earth	The entire, the whole/ circle, orbit, create, destroy, protect, save, inhabit, roam, walk, wander, rule, hit, reach, leave/ above the earth, around the earth/ inherit the earth// bare, fertile, barren, rich, soft, hard, damp, scorched/ earth shake, earth tremor.	Humans and other species inhabit the earth. She was the most beautiful woman to ever walk this earth. There was nothing but bare earth to be seen.
Water	Boiling, freezing, lukewarm, tepid, clean, crystal-clear, pure, fresh, contaminated, polluted, salty, hard, dripping, flowing, pouring, running, rushing, drinking, tap, well, bottled, mineral, sparkling, still, distilled, filtered, holy, scarce/ drop, drink, glass of/ sip, gulp, pour, splash, spray, boil, pump, drain, absorb.	Cook the pasta in plenty of boiling salted water. Residents are being asked to boil their drinking water.
Wind	Fierce, strong, gale-force, blustery, gusty, light, warm, biting, chilly, winter, howling, favourable, adverse, prevailing, head, tail, northerly, desert, solar/ blast, gust, breath, brave/ howl, moan, whip, change/ wind conditions, wind power, wind turbine/against the wind.	Rain and gale-force wind are forecast. There wasn't a breath of wind in the still air. We are rowing against the wind.
Fire	Fierce, raging, devastating, house, forest/ catch, ignite, spark, fan, extinguish, douse, smother, fight, control, prevent, survive/break out, blaze, burn, damage, consume/ safety, hazard, drill, brigade	Strong winds fanned the forest fire. The sprinkler system came on and doused the fire. The fire burned for three days before it was finally contained.

<sup>1</sup>McIntosh, C., Francis, B. and Poole, R., 2009. Oxford Collocations Dictionary for Students of English, 2 edition ed. Oxford: Oxford University Press.