

Photography

Task 1 Say cheese!

Make a note of useful vocabulary about photography around the camera.

Task 2 Find a photographer

Find somebody who..	Name	Extra information
... is a keen photographer.
... has a photo of themselves on the internet.
... has a photo of themselves with a famous person.
... can remember the last photo they took.
... has photos on their bedroom wall / on their folder.
... has a photo in their purse or wallet.
... likes having their photo taken.

Task 3 Let's go to a photography exhibition

- Have you ever been to a photography exhibition? If not, would you like to? If you have, tell your group about it.
- Now you're going to go to a photography exhibition. Use the space below to write your comments when you have had a good look at all the photos.

The Photography Exhibition
My favourite photo	My least favourite photo
The most impressive photo	The most difficult photo to take is
The strangest photo

Task 4 Who is it?

Look at the photo your teacher gives you. Work in pairs to decide who it is.

Name:

Age:

Job:

Hobbies and interests:

Now introduce the character to another group.

Task 5 Paparazzi Role Play

Student A – You're a photographer for the paparazzi. You believe that celebrities make a lot of money from being photographed and it's the price they have to pay for being so rich! You have a reputation for being one of the best photographers in the world. Right now you are out looking for celebrities and you see one when they are shopping. You want to take the photo that will make it onto the front covers of the best magazines!

Student B – You're a famous person (you decide who!) and you are fed up of being followed by the paparazzi. You believe that you have a right to some privacy and you are sick of photographers taking photos of you wherever you are. Right now, you are out shopping and you meet one of the most annoying photographers in the world. You decide to stop and talk to him/her.

Task 6 The camera never lies! Discussion statements.

The camera never lies
Family photos are important to show us our family history.
A photograph can speak a thousand words.
Photographers are artists.
There are too many security cameras in city centres these days.
Photos are an important part of history.
Photos are the best souvenirs from a holiday.
Nowadays most photos in magazines have been manipulated.