

Answer keyJanuary

- a. True
- b. True
- c. False. A Janus word is a word that has two opposite meanings. For example, left (remaining or departed). A 'palindrome' is a word that reads the same backwards as forwards (e.g. radar).

February

- a. False. There is no Roman goddess called Feronia. The goddess who protected wildlife and gave people good health is called Vesta.
- b. True
- c. True

March

- a. False. In Ancient Times the month of March was the first month of the year.
- b. True
- c. True

April

- a. True
- b. False. There is no Roman god Aprrilia. Aprilia is the name of an Italian motorcycle manufacturer.
- c. True

May

- a. False. There is no Greek god called Mayo.
- b. True
- c. True

June

- a. True
- b. True
- c. False. June never used to be called 'the wedding month'.

July

- a. True
- b. False. Family fun month is in August.
- c. True

August

- a. False. He died in the 1st century AD.
- b. False. We have no idea how many great battles the emperor won in his lifetime.
- c. True

September

- a. True
- b. False. 'Thrimilce' is the Old English name for May.
- c. True

October

- a. False. Octogen the Great didn't exist. Alexander the Great defeated Darius III.
- b. True
- c. True

November

- a. True
- b. True
- c. False. The month in which highest number of babies are born across the world is August.

December

- a. True
- b. True
- c. False. In Old English December used to be called aerra Gelo and November used to be called Blotmonath.