

Title

Topic

Asking someone out on a date

Aims

- To practise listening skills
- To improve students' vocabulary and speaking skills

Age / level

A2-B1 Adults and teens

Time

30 minutes

Materials

1. Asking someone out on a date worksheet

Introduction

This activity provides short listening practice based around a dialogue in a workplace.

Procedure

1. Warmer	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Ask students to tell each other how they met their partners or how their parents met each other.</li> <li>• Introduce the idea of a chat-up line and ask if they know any.</li> <li>• Match the chat-up lines.</li> </ul>
2. Listening 1	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Ask students to match the phrases to the definitions.</li> <li>• Monitor and feed back then ask them to put them into the sentences provided.</li> <li>• Listen and check.</li> </ul>
3. Listening 2	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Ask students to rearrange the dialogue.</li> <li>• Listen again and answer the questions</li> <li>• Feed back and check.</li> </ul>
4. Follow-up	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Complete extension activities as required.</li> </ul>
5. Developing the theme	The theme of dating may be popular with your students. You could use these activities to develop the theme travel and review a variety of tenses. For example: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- What did you enjoy most about your last date? (to practise superlatives, past forms)</li> <li>- What would your ideal partner be like? (to practise modals, descriptions of appearance and character)</li> </ul>

Contributed by

Derek Spafford