Transport Task 5 Role cards

1. At the airport

At the airport

A – You work in the check-in at Heathrow Airport. Today all the flights are cancelled because all of the pilots are on strike. You have to explain to the passengers that there will be no flights for at least three days.

At the airport

B – You reserved your flights 6 months ago to travel to Australia for your best friend’s wedding. You arrive at the airport early and go to the check-in. You are very excited and you only have two weeks off work so you plan to arrive just the day before the wedding and then you will travel around Australia.

2. At the train station

At the train station

A – You work for British Rail. You arrived at work this morning and your boss told you that all trains are cancelled today because of important engineering work on the tracks. You have to tell the passengers the news!

At the train station

B – You arrive at Paddington train station in the centre of London. You have paid a lot of money for a ticket to Edinburgh where you have a friend waiting for you. Your friend doesn’t have a mobile phone and will be waiting for you at the station.
