Wild, Emily Hughes
Personal response

Name ……………………………….. Date ………………………………..

What I liked about this picture book. Why?

………………………………………………………………………………………………………………
………………………………………………………………………………………………………………
………………………………………………………………………………………………………………
………………………………………………………………………………………………………………
………………………………………………………………………………………………………………
………………………………………………………………………………………………………………
………………………………………………………………………………………………………………
………………………………………………………………………………………………………………
………………………………………………………………………………………………………………

My favourite illustration. Why?

………………………………………………………………………………………………………………
………………………………………………………………………………………………………………

What I learned from this picture book.

………………………………………………………………………………………………………………
………………………………………………………………………………………………………………
………………………………………………………………………………………………………………
………………………………………………………………………………………………………………
………………………………………………………………………………………………………………
………………………………………………………………………………………………………………
………………………………………………………………………………………………………………

My participation – self-assessment

How well did I do? Draw the girl’s expression to show how well you did.

I interpreted the illustrations to understand the story. I recognised how feelings and emotions changed during the story. I predicted what was going to happen in the story. I answered questions during the story.

A very happy expression I tried hard and did this well.
A quite happy expression I tried quite hard and did this quite well.
A determined expression I can’t do this yet and will try harder.