Level: Intermediate/B1 onwards

Time: Approx. 90 min

Main aim(s):

- To improve students’ listening skills
- To engage students with Thomas’ work and encourage extensive reading

Subsidiary aim(s):

- To introduce/review ways of making future predictions
- To give students opportunities to practise the use of future forms and modal auxiliaries

Materials:

- Student worksheet
- Dictionaries

Introduction:

This is one of the four lessons designed to explore the videos produced by the British Council for the birth centenary of Dylan Thomas. In this video, three different speakers consider Thomas’ legacy for future generations of writers and readers and learners will also practise making future predictions in English.
