

FAST FASHION IN NUMBERS

We wear fast fashion items fewer than (1) times in total.

We keep fast fashion items for about (2) days before throwing them away.

Fast fashion produces (3) % more carbon emissions than clothes we wear 50 times.

People in the USA buy (4) billion new items of clothing each year.

In the past twenty years clothes sales in the USA have grown by (5) %.

British people send about (6) million items of clothing to landfill sites each year.

The fashion industry produces (7) billion tonnes of carbon emissions a year.

(8) litres of water are used in the lifetime of one pair of jeans.

In the UK they burn or send to landfill (9) rubbish lorries of clothes every minute.

Old clothes made from non-biodegradable fabric take (10) years to decompose.

(11) % of used clothing is recyclable.

Factories around the world use (12) chemicals to turn raw materials into textiles.

About (13) people work in the global fashion industry.

You need (14) litres of water to make one T-shirt.

