

Asking Someone Out on a Date

Activities

Before listening

Match the chat up lines

Hi, I'm doing a survey.	What's your name? What's your phone number? Are you free next Saturday?
I think there is something wrong with my phone.	Could you try calling it for me to see if it rings?
Do you have any raisins?	How about a date then?
I lost my phone number.	Can I borrow yours?
I bet you $10	you're gonna turn me down.
Are you Google?	Because you have everything I'm searching for.
Do you believe in love at first sight,	or should I walk by again?
If I could rearrange the alphabet,	I would put U and I together.

Look at the phrases below and match them to the definitions.

1	2	3	4	5	6	7
a or b	g	e	c	f	d	a or b

1	to come over	a	to visit
2	to ask someone out	b	to visit
3	to get on top of something	c	to go for a meal
4	to go for a bite to eat	d	to prevent someone from doing something
5	to be on at	e	to be in control of something
6	to come between	f	to complain to someone very often
7	to go round	g	to see if someone will go on a date with you

Now put the phrases above in the dialogues below. The tense may need to be changed.

M1: Well, that's done it then. All the figures are up to date, all the projections are calculated and checked, and all the reports are filed. Ah, that's what I call a good day's work.

F1: Mm, it certainly seems like we (1.) got on top of it at last.

F1: Well, I did say I'd (2.) go round and see my mum this evening. She's always (3.) on at me, saying I'm ignoring her. You know.

M1: Oh, well, if it's a problem ... Don't want to (4.) come between a girl and her mum, of course.

F1: Oh. Well, I suppose I could always tell her I'll (5.) come over tomorrow night.

M1: Oh great! So, a drink it is then, yeah?

M1: Indeed we do! And then, maybe we could (5.) go for a bite to eat, nothing fancy, just a pizza or something ... or maybe go to a movie.

F1: Rich ... are you (6.) asking me out on a date?

Listen to the dialogue and check your answers.
